

Call for Applications –

The Thelma M. And Wilfred J. Anderson

Renaissance Scholarship for 2017-18

Applicants must demonstrate an academic interest in the study of the Renaissance, defined as the historical period 1300-1660 in England, Europe, or other regions, as well as the nature or influence of ideas from that time. The applicant's studies may be centered in any discipline (for example, English, History, Modern and Classical Language Studies, Philosophy, Art History, Musicology, or Theatre). Undergraduate or graduate students may apply.

Please submit:

- A letter of application
- An official transcript
- The name and department of at least one KSU faculty member who can speak to your interest and talent in Renaissance studies

Application deadline:

Monday, February 27, 2017

Submit applications to:

Dr. Susanna Fein, English Professor and Coordinator of the Ancient, Medieval, and Renaissance Studies Minor, Department of English, 303-D Satterfield Hall

The Anderson Scholarship was endowed by Professor Thelma M. Anderson to encourage and promote the study of Renaissance thought and culture. It is awarded annually to a student in any discipline judged to have exceptional merit and talent in medieval and/or Renaissance fields. The awardee must plan to be enrolled at Kent State University during 2017-18. The recipient will be announced at the Spring 2017 Awards Ceremony in the English Department.
