

M.A. in ENGLISH FOR TEACHERS

Name: _____

Date Admitted:

Advisor:

Distribution Requirements: (9 hours) - one course in any three of the four divisions

Division I: Rhetoric and Composition (3 hours) _____

Division II: Literary Traditions (3 hours) _____

Division III: Literary Theory & Criticism (3 hours) _____

Creative Writing (3 hours) _____

Electives: (24 hours)

Additional coursework in the English department or a combination of the options listed below.

Options:

9 hours may be taken outside the English Dept. _____

6 hours of Graduate Workshops _____

6 hours of Master's Project (see below) _____

TOTAL HOURS 33

Master's Project:

Students may elect to write a Master's Project. The Master's Project is an extended piece of writing in which substantial research on a topic in literature or writing is applied to a problem or responsibility encountered in the work of the practicing teacher. Students who choose the Master's Project Option must complete 27 hours of coursework (or a combination of coursework and workshops, and 6 hours of Research devoted to the project.

Note: At least 18 hours of graduate coursework (or a combination of coursework and workshops, not including the Master's Project) in English must be taken at Kent State University.